Department officers were not able to locate Mr. Angulo at that time.

On September 28, 2022, Mr. Angulo was convicted of violation court order-domestic violence and theft, pled and proven in Benton County District Court, case number 2A0465702.

- 11 Mandatory Condition # 1: The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state, or local crime.

Supporting Evidence: Victor Angulo is considered to be in violation of his term of supervised release by committing the offense of violation court order-domestic violence on or about July 30, 2022.

On July 30, 2022, a Kennewick Police Department officer was dispatched to an order violation in progress call. Mr. Angulo was inside the residence of the victim, whom has an active no contact order against Mr. Angulo. Mr. Angulo left the residence and later returned back to the residence. Kennewick Police Department officers surrounded the residence and made multiple announcements over the intercom for Mr. Angulo to exit the residence. Mr. Angulo opened the rear slider door of the residence and stepped out. However, Mr. Angulo ran back inside the residence when he was challenged by the police officers that were covering the back side of the residence. A police K9 was called to the scene due to the severity of the crimes. Police officers made additional announcements for Mr. Angulo to exit the residence. Eventually, police were able to open the front door, and announcements about the K9 were made to Mr. Angulo, who then started to yell back at the police officers. Mr. Angulo eventually surrendered and he was arrested.

On September 28, 2022, Mr. Angulo was convicted of a violation court order-domestic violence, pled and proven in Benton County District Court, case number 2A0041453.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court to incorporate the violation(s) contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violation(s) previously reported to the Court.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
